Julien Davy, President and CEO of Tarku, stated: “Both the listing on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange in Europe and on the OTCQB in the US provides us with an excellent opportunity to expand our investor base beyond Canada and potentially increase liquidity. We are now able to offer our current and future international US and European investors easier access, trading, and disclosure in a strong precious metals market”.

With the commencement of trading on the OTCQB, Tarku will now be available for trading on three marketplaces around the world including the Toronto Stock Venture Exchange ("TSX.V").

Clarification on the Silver Strike Transaction

Following TSXV recommendations, the Company wishes to clarify the information provided in its press release dated May 6th, 2021 regarding the Silver Strike Transaction. The first paragraph of the Update on the Silver strike Transaction should be read as follows:

On October 12, 2020, Tarku signed the final option agreement with arm's length parties (the "Vendors") under which Tarku can earn up to 75% interest over 3 years in 1,250 hectares of unpatented mineral claims (the "Unpatented Claims Agreement") in the Tombstone mining District, Arizona. Pursuant to the agreement, to earn the 75% interest in the Property, the Company shall issue 3,000,000 common shares (issued), pay US$ 175,000 yearly for three (3) years (of which a minimum of US$50,000 will be a cash payment and US$125,000 will be paid either in shares or in cash at the Company's discretion), and incur up to US$3 million in project expenditures to earn the interest.

The remain of the section remain unchanged.
